

Free Public Meeting Helmand to Hiroshima The March for Peace

Maya Evans is one of the few UK peace activists who regularly visits Afghanistan to observe the ongoing war and to support Afghan peace activists.

Recently she participated in a peace walk from Okinawa to Hiroshima to mark the 73rd anniversary of the dropping of the Atomic bomb, as well as raising awareness about the 33 U.S. Marine bases on the Island of Okinawa.

Maya will talk about her eye witness experiences in both countries.

New Road Baptist Church, Bonn Square, Oxford OX1 1LQ

6.00pm-8.00pm

Friday 5th October 2018

U.S. Bases, The War on Terror and People Protest

Maya will be a speaker at the USAF Croughton march and rally on Saturday 6th October, explaining how the web of global U.S. bases is supporting the ongoing 'war on terror' and Britain's supporting role.
