

OVER The TOP

A dramatic response to militarisation in education

Tuesday 24 March 2015, 5pm - 7pm

Friends Meeting House, Euston Road, London NW1 2BJ

This touring show was commissioned by Central England Quakers in response to the increasing influence of military values in everyday life, especially in our schools (ex-Education Minister Michael Gove's professed wish to see a 'military ethos' in all schools). As has been demonstrated recently by Gove's successor, Nicky Morgan, this policy is still being pursued and if anything, is being 'upped'.

Over the Top focuses on the dilemma created when two contrasting points of view over the role of the military in our schools clash and come to a head-on confrontation.

Please pre-book. Entrance free, donations welcome.
