

Uniting for Peace

2015 Summer Conference on

“Surviving the 21st Century – Global Challenges, Threats and Prospects for Peace”

Saturday, 23rd May 2015, 10:30am – 04:30pm

Wesley's Chapel, 49 City Road, London EC1Y 1AU, Nearest tube station Old Street

Session 1: Wars, Militarism, Political Economy and Peace Building

“Can we abolish war and build peace?”

Frank Jackson, Vice President Uniting for Peace

“Challenging the status quo of Political Economy and Solutions”

Moeen Yaseen, Director of Global Vision 2000

“Urgent need for unity to ‘survive the 21st century’”

Anthony Russell, Founder Chandos Foundation

“Peace building through schools”

Anna Lubelska, Founder and Coordinator of the Peaceful Schools Movement in England

“Global Challenges need Global Solutions”

Vijay Mehta, Author and Chair, Uniting for Peace

Session 2: Challenging Islamophobia and Interfaith Dialogue

“Muslims in British Society Today”

Dr. Shuja Shafi, Secretary General Muslim Council of Britain

“Harnessing Media for Tackling Islamophobia”

Mohsin Abbas, Ahlebait Sky TV

“Positive Interfaith Dialogue for Peace”

Rev. Brian Cooper, Interfaith Secretary, Uniting for Peace

Session 3: Climate Change Crisis and Solutions

How to choose a legacy to do no harm?

Trish Dickenson, Earth Trustee for Eradicating Ecocide

Jo Jo Mehta, Environmental Activist and Concerned Citizen

“From War Economy to Green Economy”

Vijay Mehta, Author and Chair, Uniting for Peace

For registration and information, please contact: vijay@vmpeace.org

Vijay Mehta : 0207 791 1717

Brian Cooper : 0131 446 9545

www.unitingforpeace.com | Free public meeting, donation welcome

