

Hearing from the Iran Peace Delegation

Oxford Public Meeting:

Saturday 23rd February, 3pm - 5pm

Peace House 19 Paradise St, Oxford OX1 1LD

Anti-war artist Emily Johns and activist Milan Rai (author of War Plan Iraq and Chomsky's Politics) report back from their mid-February peace delegation to Iran. Travelling with the Fellowship of Reconciliation USA, the two Peace News editors will have visited four Iranian cities and met Iranians from all walks of life around the country, exploring the realities of life under sanctions, and the feelings of ordinary Iranians about the nuclear crisis and the threat of war.

Emily Johns travelled to Iran in 2006, and produced a powerful exhibition entitled 'Drawing Paradise on the "Axis of Evil"', viewable on the Justice Not Vengeance website. Milan Rai, granted the Pax Christi Peace Award and the TGWU's Frank Cousins Peace Award, specialises in dismantling the myths surrounding the Iran crisis.

"In this time of diplomatic hostility between Britain and Iran, it is important for ordinary people to strengthen person-to-person contact between our countries and to interrupt the build-up to a possible war."

Emily Johns & Mil Rai

More details on the delegation blog:

<http://www.drawingparadise.org>

More details on the art exhibition:

<http://tinyurl.com/JNV-exhibition>

Meeting sponsored by

Fellowship of Reconciliation and Oxford CND

Hearing from the Iran Peace Delegation

Oxford Public Meeting:

Saturday 23rd February, 3pm - 5pm

Peace House 19 Paradise St, Oxford OX1 1LD

Anti-war artist Emily Johns and activist Milan Rai (author of War Plan Iraq and Chomsky's Politics) report back from their mid-February peace delegation to Iran. Travelling with the Fellowship of Reconciliation USA, the two Peace News editors will have visited four Iranian cities and met Iranians from all walks of life around the country, exploring the realities of life under sanctions, and the feelings of ordinary Iranians about the nuclear crisis and the threat of war.

Emily Johns travelled to Iran in 2006, and produced a powerful exhibition entitled 'Drawing Paradise on the "Axis of Evil"', viewable on the Justice Not Vengeance website. Milan Rai, granted the Pax Christi Peace Award and the TGWU's Frank Cousins Peace Award, specialises in dismantling the myths surrounding the Iran crisis.

"In this time of diplomatic hostility between Britain and Iran, it is important for ordinary people to strengthen person-to-person contact between our countries and to interrupt the build-up to a possible war."

Emily Johns & Mil Rai

More details on the delegation blog:

<http://www.drawingparadise.org>

More details on the art exhibition:

<http://tinyurl.com/JNV-exhibition>

Meeting sponsored by

Fellowship of Reconciliation and Oxford CND